Weekly Update

Crossroads,

What a great time we had at our two services last Sunday. It truly is amazing to see God at work; uniting, blessing, energising, healing, drawing and helping us bring communities and Christ together. Thank you to all involved. It really does take a team to achieve the dream.

We enjoyed some soccer at Pokeno after the Alpha video, discussion and food- the score is 1 all and the goal scored after the final whistle does not count. (To be continued this Sunday evening at Pokeno.) This Sunday 10.30am we will be challenged to think globally through Child Rescue and the incredible work they do. We are looking forward to welcoming Brian Saipe, National manager for Child Rescue NZ. Please come along to support our Kids Church as they present their significant donation and hear Brian speak about their valuable work, bringing children out of slavery.

Do come and bring a plate for a special morning tea, please. And at 6pm we are at Pokeno - building community, Alpha - Why did Jesus die? - and enjoying discussion and soccer and ...See you there. (Youth friendly and people friendly)

God bless you all .
